On 16-11-2018, the Petition Processing Portal has been launched by the Honourable Minister of Hindu Religious & Charitable Endowments Department (HR&CE), Thiru Sevoor S. Ramachandran, Government of Tamil Nadu at the Commissionerate of HR&CE, Chennai. During the launch, the Honourable Minister briefed the gathering and the media about the features and benefits of the portal, and also mentioned the role of NIC, Tamil Nadu State Centre in designing, developing and hosting the citizen centric portal.

It is a G2C service that facilitates the public and employees of the Offices of the Hindu Religious & Charitable Endowments Department (HR&CE) to submit the petitions of their grievances and also to see the status of the petitions Online as well as at the back office of the department. The petitioner will get acknowledgement SMS on Submission and Disposal of the Petition. The petitioner can send the petition number as SMS to 155250 to know the status by reply SMS or scan the QR Code in the Acknowledgement with using QR Code reader on a smart phone to check the status of the petition.

Besides, the department can process the petitions by forwarding to the concerned officers hierarchically down the line and replying back to the disposing officers up the line. Also, the portal has facility to monitor and review the processing of the petitions by the senior officers like Commissioners, Collectors, etc.

The Honourable Minister of Hindu Religious & Charitable Endowments Department (HR&CE), Thiru Sevoor S. Ramachandran, Government of Tamil Nadu launched Petition Processing Portal. Thiru. T. K. Ramachandran, I.A.S., Principal Secretary / Commissioner of HR&CE, Senior Officers of HR&CE, and NIC, Tamil Nadu State Centre Officers were also present in the occasion.
